Notification to Students

During this quarterly reporting period, the institution issued a letter to recipients including information about the grant, intended use of the funds, how to view the amount of their grant, and how the funds are disbursed to them.

During the fall semester, the university produced a video explaining how the university identified eligible students and that students could contact the Financial Aid Office if they were experiencing extenuating hardship. The institutional video was communicated and posted to the Illinois State University YouTube page.

In addition to the letter and video, information regarding emergency grants is available to all students on the Illinois State University Student Emergency Grant Funds web page.

The Financial Aid Office also conducted phone outreach to students with outstanding balances, sent out communication about the deadline for applying for a tuition payment plan, and visited to all
